

FIOR DI BOSCO

This classic marble is named “wildflower” in Italian, and is sourced from Italy. Softly flowing infusions of warm apricot move across a ground of rich pearl grey, creating a surface redolent both of Art Deco and Mid-Century Modern design. The visual movement of the veining in this Tuscan marble is especially intriguing. Available in a ¾" (2cm) polished slab and 12" × 24" honed field tile.
